The truth about KitsuraNines

Hello all, it has come to this that I have to create this documentation that consists of views, experiences, and eye-witness facts and details of questionable business practices of the VTubing industry from Indie VTubers to Independent VTubers, here is a full documentation with a video put together as well for those who are not interested in reading this full document. Please note, this is not meant to facilitate, take part, endorse, and enforce harmful, unlawful, and defaming actions against KitsuraNines. This document contains the full truth and all sides of the story from all VTubers including my own. Screenshots will contain names of VTubers as well as witnesses and insiders who wish to remain anonymous and neutral, and would wish to remain anonymous and on neutral standing and it shall be a respected decision.

TheRealAldrius

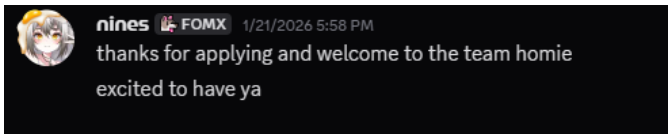
This section here describes my point of view and truth about KitsuraNines, from the time,day, and place I met her to now. On December 14th, 2025, I found a post made by Nines which was a repost about Akemi. From there I read the situation, not sure who was in the right or wrong in this drama. Which normally I stay out of, that's when the threat of Nines being doxxed came up. I aided her, and we got to know each other from there, I joined her community and things seemed fine. On January 21st, 2026, I applied and joined her mod team because I wanted to aid the effort of securing her server from questionable individuals joining her server and help make the server safe.



Unfortunately my time being her moderator didn't last long. I followed her rules as a moderator and followed them to the T. Her top moderator Nova had an issue with it, and there were clear cases of moderators making friends with the troublemakers and questionable people who referenced but never said slurs and other heinous comments. A user would post or mention explicit comments which goes against her NSFW rule and I got rid of it accordingly. It was January 26th to January 27th during my shift at work while I was on break. I checked Nines's server to see who is stirring trouble. Two users were constantly referencing slurs and referenced NSFW topics and even posted an NSFW Doro gif which I will not describe in this document as it is explicit. The two users in question have been making claims that I was being harsh and unfair to them and have made additional comments to Nines and Nova explaining the situation. Nova made the decision to give me a 1 out of 2 strikes before I get kicked off of moderation. I asked another moderator (who has declared anonymity for this document) "Did I go out of line?" and he said "Yes."

[redacted] Yeah. You got a little heated, which is why I stepped in. I think [redacted] was just being [redacted]
TheRealAldrivs 1/27/2026 1:43 AM
I wasn't really getting heated the issue was being really heated

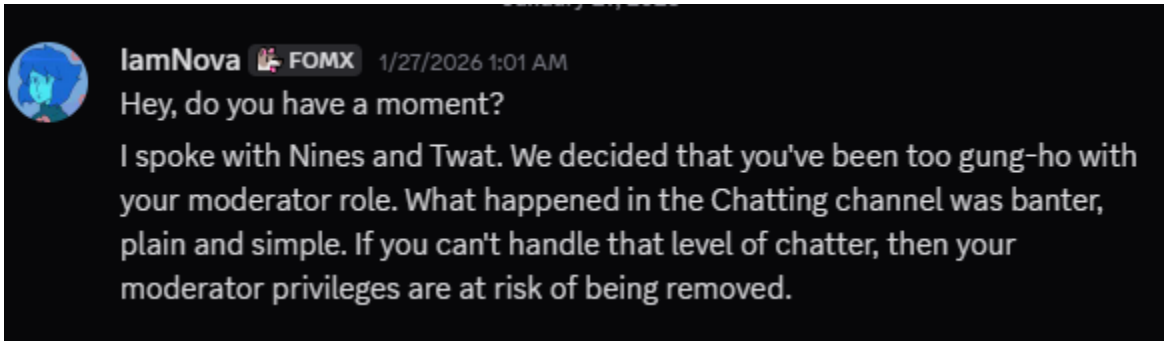
After the discussion with another mod, I received a message from Nova about the situation and therefore, mentioning the strike.



IamNova FOMX 1/27/2026 1:01 AM
Hey, do you have a moment?
I spoke with Nines and Twat. We decided that you've been too gung-ho with your moderator role. What happened in the Chatting channel was banter, plain and simple. If you can't handle that level of chatter, then your moderator privileges are at risk of being removed.

After assessing what's going on in the general chat, I can tell Nova and Nines were going with the word of mouth approach. For the context of what created the problem, a user who goes by Alabastion or "alby" and another user Glomp have made multiple fat jokes to me (which at the time my username was STAR-090999 "Nines" which is a Signalis reference). I didn't take it to heart because I knew they were joking and I never took them seriously. However, at one point I told them to calm down with the joke after the 3rd time of telling it, and they kept going. Then they were stirring it into drama by saying "I can't take a joke" and "It's just a discord"

Alabastion WOLF 9:02 AM
So originally it was about me cracking jokes about star being a discord mod. The fat neckbeard, unserious thing.
Then he pointed out I was playing FF for 18 hrs.
thought it was banter but then he got allegedly butthurt somehow in the middle of that, then I called him a fat discord mod again.
We tried to clam him down to join in on the banter and he called me cringe.
Star said WE were trying to turn this all into drama??
Glomp said c[redacted]in a message towards huf and got deleted. I called him cringe for deleting it.
I posted the doro c[redacted]ing gif (which to be fair that was warranted a delete) then got timed out

The part of "we tried to calm him down" never happened. I fired a joke back at him about him playing Final Fantasy 16 for 18 hours. Then Alby and Glomp proceeded to say "I don't understand roman numerals" Which I do read Roman Numerals. (for context FF 16 is FFXVI, and FF14 is FFXIV).Which I took that as an insult to intelligence.

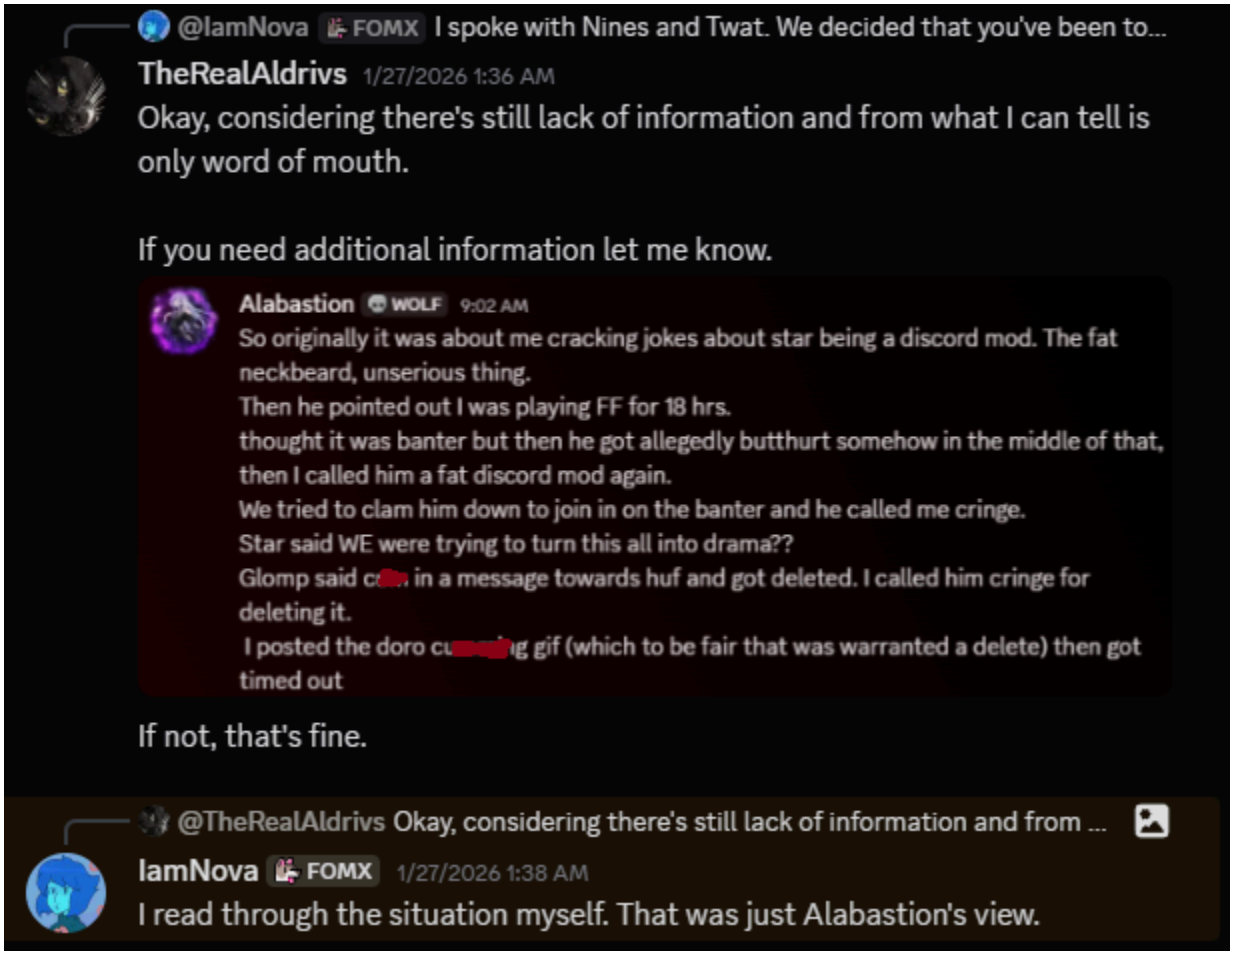
@1-800-Glomp ur fat and gay

At the end of the day, it's the usual discord server member vs. Moderator battle, Alby lied about the situation to Nova, he claimed he read the entire situation, which I know for sure he did not. As he sided with Alby and Glomp anyway, and gave me the strike. Which the better approach would be to give me another chance (if it was another mod, in my situation I will still say the same).



@IamNova FOMX I spoke with Nines and Twat. We decided that you've been to...
TheRealAldrivs 1/27/2026 1:36 AM
Okay, considering there's still lack of information and from what I can tell is only word of mouth.
If you need additional information let me know.

IamNova FOMX 1/27/2026 1:38 AM
I read through the situation myself. That was just Alabastion's view.

That is when I realized that the moderators Nines has put together isn't what I expected it to be, as I have experience in being a moderator since I was 16 for a youtube reaction group and since then I was a moderator on and off for a lot of people.

KitsuraNines and Nova have put together rules for moderators to follow and "how to approach" users. Below are screenshots of KitsuraNines's Mod rules and structure.

Moderator Guidelines: Rule Enforcement SOP (Standard Operating Procedure)

1) The #1 Mod Priority

Your job isn't to "win arguments" or decide who's right.
Your job is to:

- keep chat safe
- keep chat on-topic
- stop escalation early
- enforce rules consistently

Earlier intervention > harsher punishment later. (edited)

2) Enforcement Ladder (How to act step-by-step)

Level 0 — Soft Redirect (low severity)

Use when:

- off-topic
- early tension
- passive snark starting
- religious/political themes starting to emerge

Action: public message in channel, friendly + firm
Example:

> hey let's keep it chill + move on from this topic 🙏

(edited)

Level 1 — Formal Warning (clear rule break)

Use when:

- someone continues after a redirect
- discussion enters political/religious territory (even "civil")
- personal jabs begin
- someone tries to debate moderation/rules in channel

Action: public warning + stop directive
Example:

> mod note: political/religious topics aren't allowed here. drop it now and move on.

(edited)

Level 2 — Timeout (continued behavior / escalation)

11:14 AM Level 1 — Formal Warning (clear rule break)

Use when:

- someone continues after a redirect
- discussion enters political/religious territory (even "civil")
- personal jabs begin
- someone tries to debate moderation/rules in channel

Action: public warning + stop directive
Example:

> mod note: political/religious topics aren't allowed here. drop it now and move on.

(edited)

Level 2 — Timeout (continued behavior / escalation)

Use when:

- they ignore warning
- they restart the topic later
- they provoke others / passive-aggressive "ok guess we can't talk about anything 🙄"

Action: timeout + short DM explanation
Example DM:

> you were timed out because political/religious topics aren't allowed. after timeout, please keep chat away from that topic.

(edited)

Level 3 — Kick (pattern / refusal)

Use when:

- multiple timeouts in a short window
- they show they won't respect mod direction
- they're baiting conflict

(edited)

Level 4 — Ban (severe / unsafe / blatant)

Use when:

- slurs/hate speech
- harassment / threats
- NSFW content
- posting harmful imagery / gore / etc
- repeat offender who clearly doesn't fit the server

(edited)

rick nines FOMX 1/20/2026 11:18 AM

3) The "No Politics / No Religion" Rule (VERY Important)

Mods should treat this as:

Zero debate rule.
It does not matter if it's:

- respectful

rick nines FOMX 1/20/2026 11:18 AM

3) The “No Politics / No Religion” Rule (VERY Important)

Mods should treat this as:

Zero debate rule.
It does not matter if it’s:

- respectful
- philosophical
- “just asking questions”
- “I’m not even religious but…”
- news-based
- identity-based

If it is religious OR political content → shut it down immediately.

✅ Allowed:

- “Happy Easter / Merry Christmas” as a one-off greeting
- “I’m going to church / temple” as personal life mention (no discussion)
- “praying for you” as supportive message

❌ Not allowed:

- arguing religion
- debating atheism/theism
- “religion causes…” commentary
- “this group believes…”
- debating politics, politicians, laws, protests, immigration policy, wars, etc.

Best practice:
Interrupt early. Don’t wait to see if it stays civil.

Mod script:

> mod note: no political or religious discussions here. please drop it and move on.

If it continues:

> continuing this will result in a timeout.

Then do it. (edited)

4) “No Drama” Rule (How mods should interpret it)

Drama isn’t only screaming and insults.

Drama includes:

- baiting
- dogpiling
- subtweeting / calling someone out
- repeated complaining about other communities
- “everyone on twitter is…” rants that spiral
- trying to “expose” people
- arguing about what happened in VC

Drama isn't only screaming and insults.

Drama includes:
- baiting
- dogpiling
- subtweeting / calling someone out
- repeated complaining about other communities
- "everyone on twitter is..." rants that spiral
- trying to "expose" people
- arguing about what happened in VC

If it increases tension, it counts. (edited)

5) "Personal Venting" Rule (Boundaries)

We care, but this isn't a therapy server.

Mods should step in when:
- trauma dumping
- self-harm heavy topics
- ongoing crisis posting
- dumping about abusive relationships in detail
- expecting the server to comfort them

Mod script:
> hey, i'm really sorry you're dealing with that — but we can't do heavy venting in public channels. please keep it light here.

If needed:
> if you need real support, please reach out to someone you trust or a professional / local hotline.

(Mods should not become counselors.) (edited)

6) De-escalation Rules for Mods (How to avoid fueling arguments)

Mods must:
- stay neutral
- avoid sarcasm
- keep messages short
- never argue back-and-forth
- never threaten repeatedly (warn once, then act)
- never "take sides" publicly

Key principle:

Don't litigate in public.
If someone argues:
> this isn't up for debate. if you continue, it'll be a timeout.

Then stop replying — just enforce. (edited)

7) Moderation Consistency Rules

Key principle:

Don't litigate in public.
If someone argues:

> this isn't up for debate. if you continue, it'll be a timeout.

Then stop replying — just enforce. (edited)

7) Moderation Consistency Rules

Mods should follow the same logic every time.

- Same behavior = same action regardless of who it is
- Friends don't get passes
- Regulars don't get unlimited warnings

If someone says:

> why are you targeting me??

Mods respond:

> rules apply to everyone equally.

(edited)

8) Documentation + Internal Notes (so mods stay aligned)

Whenever there's:

- a timeout
- a kick
- repeated problems

Mods should log:

- who
- what rule
- link/screenshot
- action taken

This prevents:

- confusion later
- "mod A said it was fine"
- repeat offenders resetting each week

(edited)

rick nines FOMX 1/20/2026 11:25 AM

9) Quick Reference Cheat Sheet (mods can use mid-chat)

If political/religious topic appears:

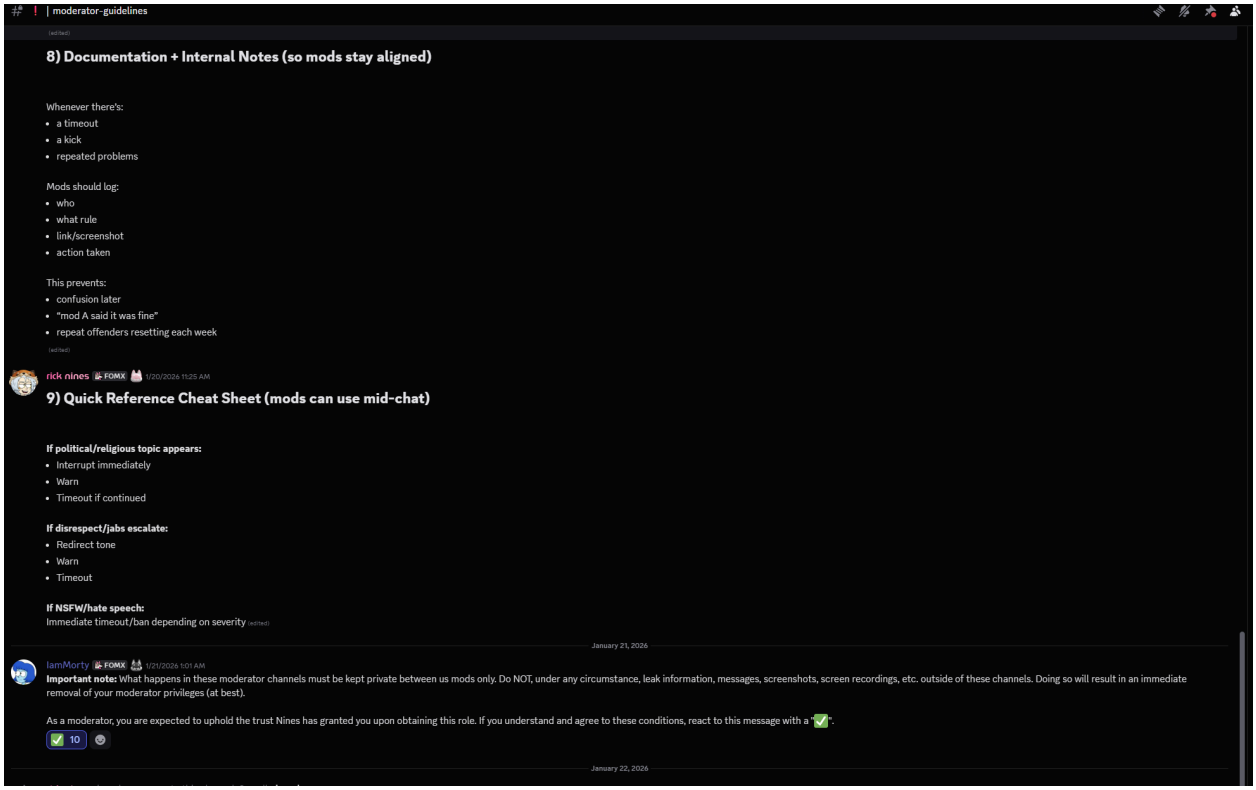
- Interrupt immediately
- Warn
- Timeout if continued



moderator-guidelines

Important note: What happens in these moderator channels must be kept private between us mods only. Do NOT, under any circumstance, leak information, messages, screenshots, screen recordings, etc. outside of these channels. Doing so will result in an immediate removal of your moderator privileges (at best).
As a moderator, you are expected to uphold the trust Nines has granted you upon obtaining this role. If you understand and agree to these conditions, react to this message with a "✅".

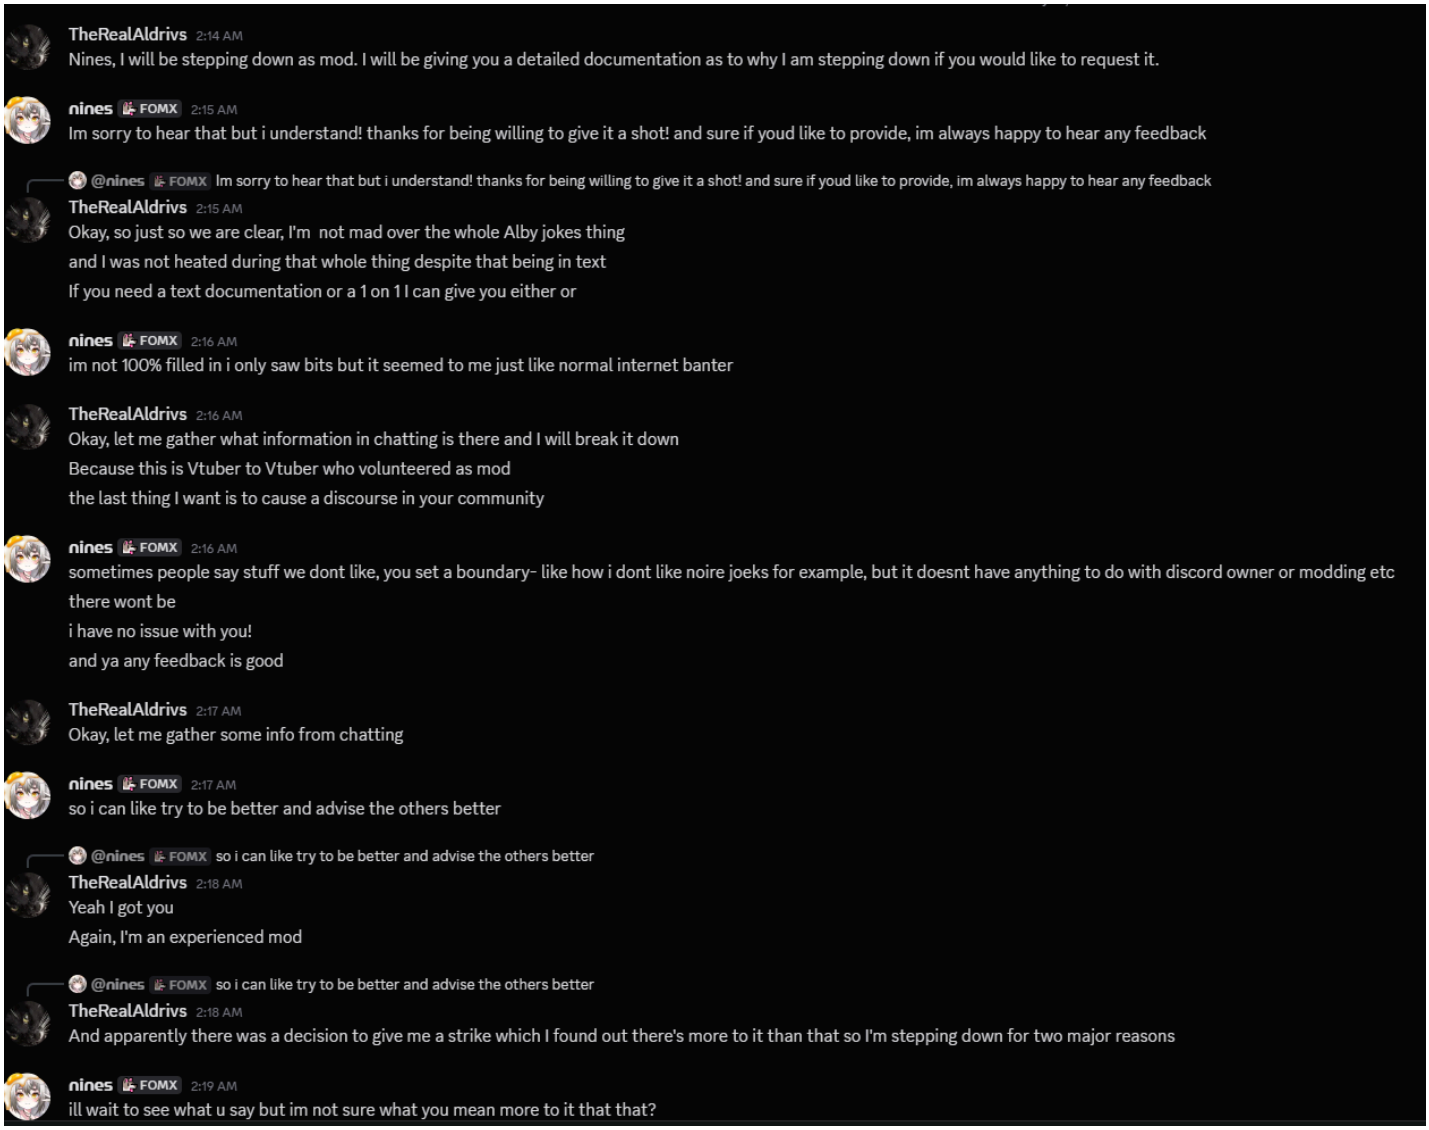
As you can see, that's a lot to read. However there have been multiple cases of moderators breaking these rules, especially by not getting involved and having friends who are causing problems and have refused to get involved because their friends are causing the problem.

Then I made the decision to step down as moderator, I dm'ed Nines:



TheRealAldrivs 2:14 AM
Nines, I will be stepping down as mod. I will be giving you a detailed documentation as to why I am stepping down if you would like to request it.
nines FOMX 2:15 AM
Im sorry to hear that but i understand! thanks for being willing to give it a shot! and sure if youd like to provide, im always happy to hear any feedback
@nines FOMX Im sorry to hear that but i understand! thanks for being willing to give it a shot! and sure if youd like to provide, im always happy to hear any feedback
TheRealAldrivs 2:15 AM
Okay, so just so we are clear, I'm not mad over the whole Alby jokes thing and I was not heated during that whole thing despite that being in text
If you need a text documentation or a 1 on 1 I can give you either or
nines FOMX 2:16 AM
im not 100% filled in i only saw bits but it seemed to me just like normal internet banter
TheRealAldrivs 2:16 AM
Okay, let me gather what information in chatting is there and I will break it down
Because this is Vtuber to Vtuber who volunteered as mod the last thing I want is to cause a discourse in your community
nines FOMX 2:16 AM
sometimes people say stuff we dont like, you set a boundary- like how i dont like noire joeks for example, but it doesnt have anything to do with discord owner or modding etc there wont be i have no issue with you!
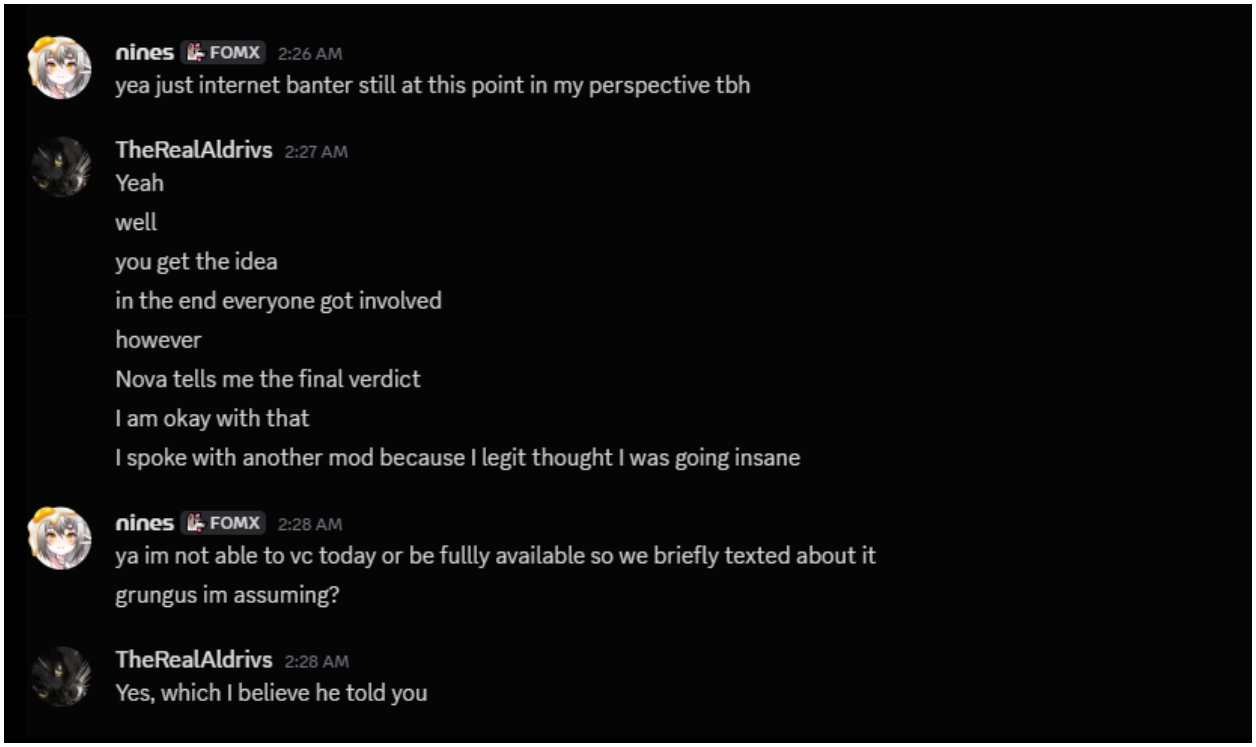
and ya any feedback is good
TheRealAldrivs 2:17 AM
Okay, let me gather some info from chatting
nines FOMX 2:17 AM
so i can like try to be better and advise the others better
@nines FOMX so i can like try to be better and advise the others better
TheRealAldrivs 2:18 AM
Yeah I got you
Again, I'm an experienced mod
@nines FOMX so i can like try to be better and advise the others better
TheRealAldrivs 2:18 AM
And apparently there was a decision to give me a strike which I found out there's more to it than that so I'm stepping down for two major reasons
nines FOMX 2:19 AM
ill wait to see what u say but im not sure what you mean more to it that that?

Nines was confused about what I was explaining then I told her the whole story (or at least I tried).



nines FOMX 2:26 AM
yea just internet banter still at this point in my perspective tbh
TheRealAldrivs 2:27 AM
Yeah
well
you get the idea
in the end everyone got involved
however
Nova tells me the final verdict
I am okay with that I spoke with another mod because I legit thought I was going insane
nines FOMX 2:28 AM
ya im not able to vc today or be fullly available so we briefly texted about it grungus im assuming?
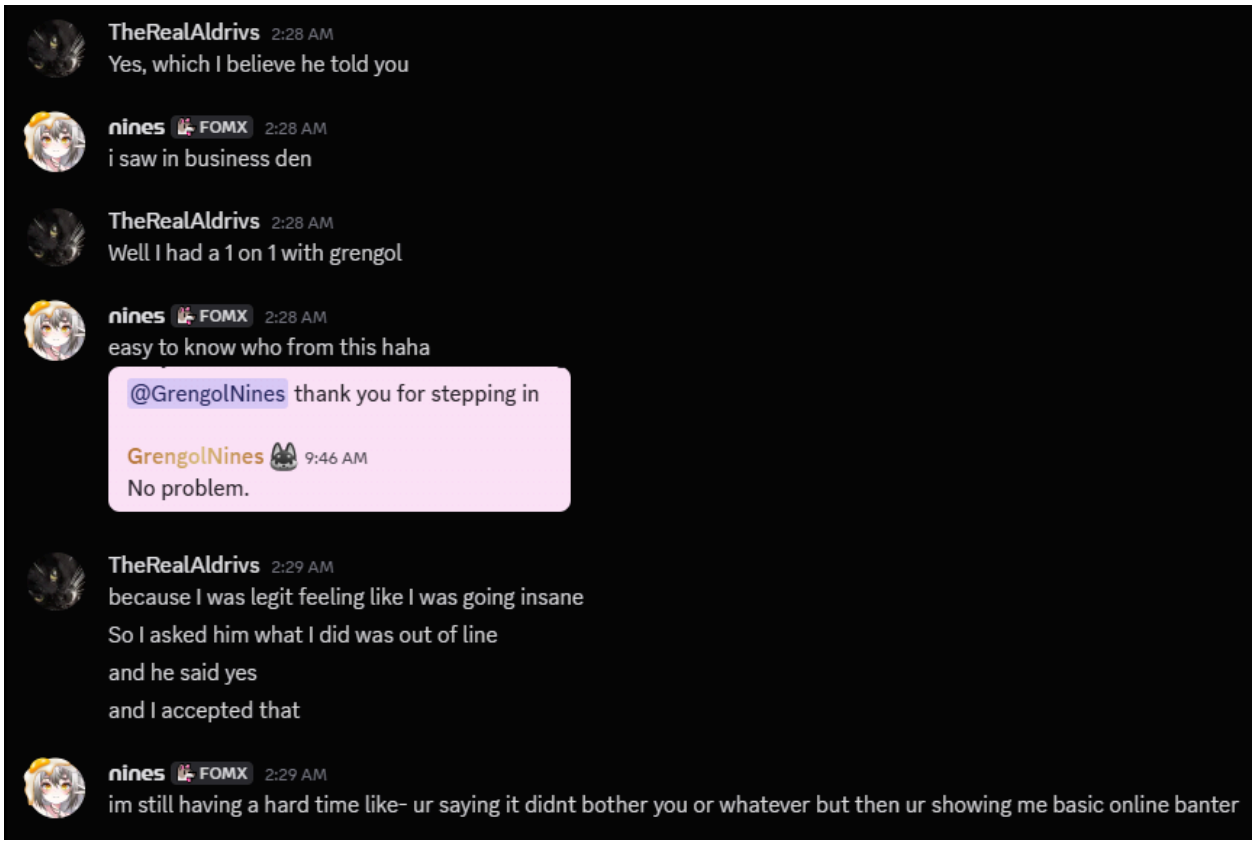
TheRealAldrivs 2:28 AM
Yes, which I believe he told you



TheRealAldrivs 2:28 AM
Yes, which I believe he told you
nines FOMX 2:28 AM
i saw in business den
TheRealAldrivs 2:28 AM
Well I had a 1 on 1 with grengol
nines FOMX 2:28 AM
easy to know who from this haha @GrengolNines thank you for stepping in GrengolNines 9:46 AM
No problem.
TheRealAldrivs 2:29 AM
because I was legit feeling like I was going insane
So I asked him what I did was out of line and he said yes
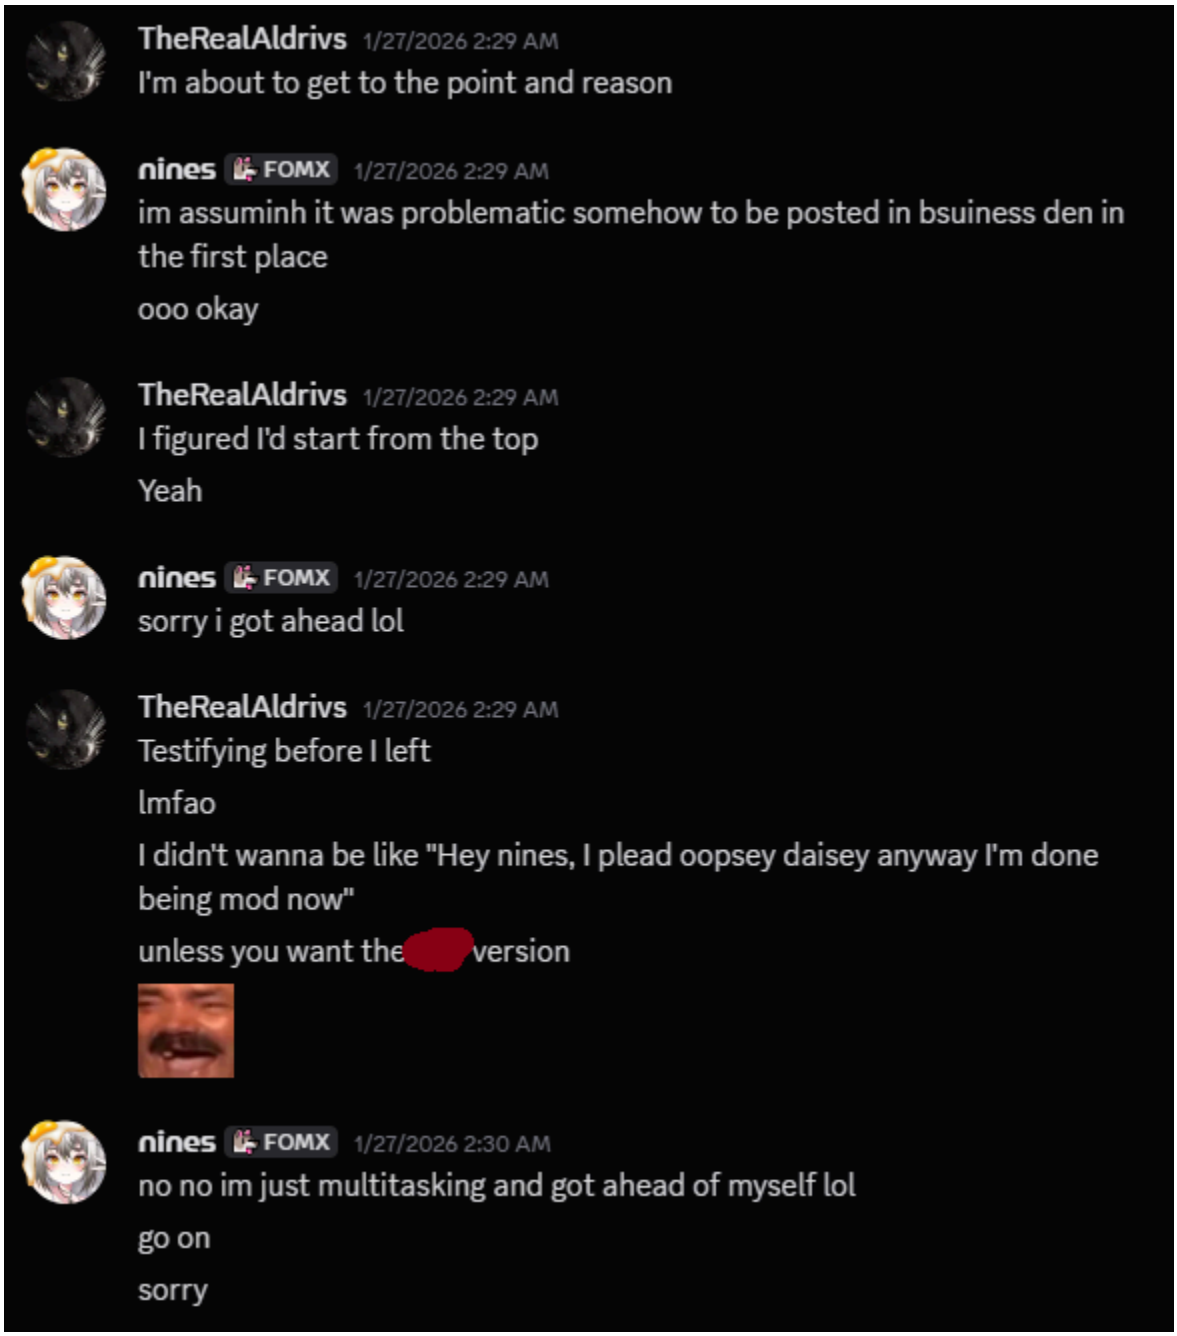
and I accepted that
nines FOMX 2:29 AM
im still having a hard time like- ur saying it didnt bother you or whatever but then ur showing me basic online banter

Nines disregarded the heated incident as "basic online banter" twice, downplaying the entire situation.

Redact the message involving Toki that is derogatory toward him



TheRealAldrivs 1/27/2026 2:29 AM
I'm about to get to the point and reason
nines FOMX 1/27/2026 2:29 AM
im assuminh it was problematic somehow to be posted in bsuiness den in the first place
ooo okay
TheRealAldrivs 1/27/2026 2:29 AM
I figured I'd start from the top
Yeah
nines FOMX 1/27/2026 2:29 AM
sorry i got ahead lol
TheRealAldrivs 1/27/2026 2:29 AM
Testifying before I left lmfao
I didn't wanna be like "Hey nines, I plead oopsey daisey anyway I'm done being mod now" unless you want the [redacted] version
nines FOMX 1/27/2026 2:30 AM no no im just multitasking and got ahead of myself lol go on sorry

TheRealAldrivs 2:30 AM

You're okay
So I accepted Grengol's outside point of view
that's when I found out that Alby turned out to be friends with a couple of mods [redacted] and Grengol and Grengol admitted him jumping in is to basically save Alby, which I have a strong feeling [redacted] did as well Which goes completely against Rule 7 of the mod rules.

nines FOMX 2:32 AM
ill talk to him about that but i personally from the chat youve shown me so far- dont really see what the issue with it was? so its hard to gauge (edited) but good to get aheads up on

> @nines FOMX but good to get aheads up on

TheRealAldrivs 2:32 AM
Well I mainly stopped showing the chat simply because I thought you wanted to get straight to the point
The bottom where it all ended was the height of the drama

nines FOMX 2:33 AM
i guess in this case if something over the line or breaking a rule worth being modded was said thats what i would want to see

TheRealAldrivs 2:33 AM
I told them multiple times to please move on and they were given a couple of warns which is normal for them going against hte rules

nines FOMX 2:34 AM
ah i see okay
breaking boundary/not listening to u as a person, let alone as a mod. kinda disrespectful

TheRealAldrivs 2:34 AM
And they got routy and Alby (which yes, he admitted) posted a gif of Doro[redacted]

TheRealAldrivs 2:34 AM
Yes, and Nova was telling me he read the whole thing
Which is telling me he didn't considering I got this warning in the first place, to be fair it should've been carefully given as a decision and of course a VC would've sufficed like a hearing
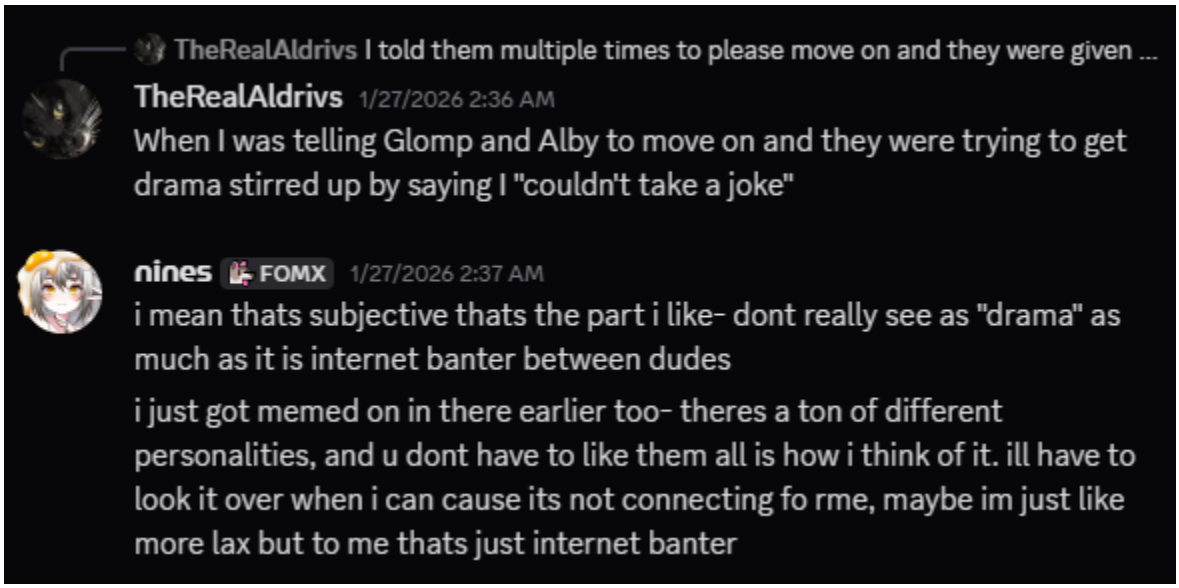
However considering this was the second time this happened it appears there have been a case of playing favorites
nines FOMX 2:35 AM
"Which is telling me he didn't considering I got this warning in the first place, " im confused- he is the one giving you the warning so what do you mean



TheRealAldrivs I told them multiple times to please move on and they were given ...
TheRealAldrivs 1/27/2026 2:36 AM
When I was telling Glomp and Alby to move on and they were trying to get drama stirred up by saying I "couldn't take a joke"
nines FOMX 1/27/2026 2:37 AM i mean thats subjective thats the part i like- dont really see as "drama" as much as it is internet banter between dudes
i just got memed on in there earlier too- theres a ton of different personalities, and u dont have to like them all is how i think of it. ill have to look it over when i can cause its not connecting fo rme, maybe im just like more lax but to me thats just internet banter

ya a convoo like that would not personally phase me really so i cant relate but i understand where ur comming from
TheRealAldrivs 1/27/2026 2:39 AM
I was trying hard to not turn it into drama and then Grengol had to step in and then more mods and yeah you got the idea
But the main reason of my stepping down is due to the consistency issue and mods holding themselves accountable for picking favorites or jumping to their friend's aid when they're getting in trouble with a mod.
And to avoid further issues with your community as mod

nines FOMX 1/27/2026 2:40 AM

yea, i think there is a difference in style of modding and opinons, and im not saying were all perfect cause we arnt, but yea i just dont see this as a big problem personally, others may, but are keeping it to themselves, liek grungus maybe idk ive never heard of anyone talk about mods picking favorites before so ill have to look into that and ppl do dm about these things, like random members so ill have to figure out what thats about

TheRealAldrivs 1/27/2026 2:41 AM

Because I'm hearing it from multiple people like Tougher, Huf and a few more

I can't remember all their names

Another mod was noticing it too which was Jeb

Before I was mod I was hearing multiple complaints

Now when I became a mod those complaints died down

nines FOMX 1/27/2026 2:42 AM

i havent seen it happen personally so its  hard to say for myself and this is the first ime hearing. its interesting how everyone is talking about it to everyone except me, the person who is the only one who can do anything about it,

After I told Nines of my stepping down as mod and had a professional conversation with her, that's when things got bad. From an insider, Nines in a VC in her server told her moderators including Nova that the conversation was basically a nothing burger and I was "being petty." I requested the recording from the insider, but the insider was afraid of legal concerns so I looked into it and told him it's perfectly fine.

However more issues occurred, Nines disclosed a lot of negative comments about me, and about her other moderators who aren't close to her, as well as making negative comments and conversations about her followers and close friends. This was happening in a mix of VC and messages. I gathered as much information as possible before I was finally banned from KitsuraNines's server, and I still have insiders keeping an eye out for further information. ( At the time of writing this document.)

One of the moderators, which I respect for their anonymity, has angrily stepped down his position as a mod shortly after my departure due to their discovery of Nines's negative conversation about them. Nova confronted them in dm's.

Someone wasn't cut out for moderating and it showed real quick.

After seeing this, and adding up to the negative comments coming from Nines about the people mentioned and negatively talked bad to, including her own followers and moderators, I have been heavily convinced that all of the drama sparked around Nines was her own doing, and therefore she claimed multiple times that she did nothing wrong. I was very respectful to Nines and I respected her community and her boundaries. Now Nines is resorting to scorched earth tactics, she deleted the moderator channels and she is barring anyone from becoming a mod or entering her server who is around me and is a friend of mine. While on top of that I am receiving more information that she has also mistreated other VTubers around her, sparking more drama. Nines refuses to take accountability, she is absolutely careless of what she says about anyone, she does not care who you are, in the end you are not a friend of hers. She will mistreat you.

The drama continues

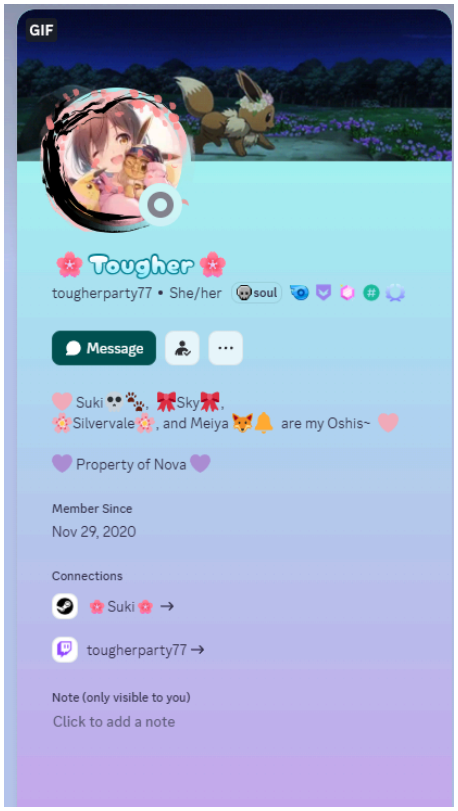
As of Jan 30th of 2026, to February 1st 2026, Nines has continued to vaguely post about me heavily referencing me directly on the matter. All due to an informant who goes by the name of TougherParty77, or for some of those who are fans of her goes by the name of Suki. She has been caught acting suspicious of sharing information to Nines and even altering a copy of this document which no one has given her access to. A community member has pinpointed all suspicions on TougherParty77 and I cross referenced everything and it kept leading to Tougher.



Due to the information leak, Nines and Nova have been kept well informed of the situation.

On January 30th, Nines has addressed the situation on X and on discord claiming I was organizing a smear campaign which is not the intention of this document. The intent of this document is to spread awareness containing truth and receipts of how Nines is handling the entire situation that unfortunately evolved into drama. She claims her server is laid back when in reality it's her mod team, her community members are the kind you find from the most toxic content creators to exist which will openly harass you, call you slurs, and vice versa,  which is normal internet behavior and I grew up around the old gaming culture of Modern Warfare 2 Lobbies, so you can get the idea that I understand not to take any slur or name calling seriously. I have addressed the entire story of my position as mod earlier in this document. She then on claims being a victim, and claimed I am attacking her as well as her making claims that I am gifting for attention by calling upon other VTubers who were in past dramas with her, which isn't the true intention, which the intention was to gain more information and to tie it all together, as my situation is matching up with other VTubers's situations such as Akemi, Saturn, and Neevin, as well as her old friend of a mod before I became part of her mod team, Nats. She then claims I attempted to attack her over me being a mod then proceeded to make multiple claims that I have an ego issue, when all it was, was a simple me going out of line once, the entire drama is never about me stepping down as mod which is the core part of Nines's drama and her only proof of anything else. It's a means to refrain from the truth about how Nines feels and treats everyone around her, including her right hand mod Nova, and instead redirect the drama to only me stepping down which is less than 5% of the truth to make her look better. The main reason why this document is being put together is to address the behavior of Nines and put an end to all of the lying and fueling of hate. Which is something this 35 year old Karen Fox VTuber craves.

Nines 🐾🤍 INDIE VTUBER 🦊
@KitsuraNines

I've been informed that a former moderator, who chose to step down after we disagreed on how my server should be moderated, is now attempting to organize a smear campaign against me.

For context: my server is intentionally laid back. This moderator preferred a much stricter approach, and we simply didn't align. We had an amicable conversation about it, and he stepped down on his own. There was no hostility.

Afterward, I held a mod meeting to review rules and enforcement. The issue in question amounted to someone calling him a "reddit moderator" and joking about Roman numerals. He repeatedly said it didn't bother him, which left everyone confused as to why it was even raised. All other mods agreed it was a non issue, and we moved on.

They seem to think that informing my mod team about what happened, (the only people I spoke to about it) somehow counts as "talking shit." I'm blunt, but I did not badmouth anyone. No one even asked for my side. It's all hearsay being passed around by people who already want to tear me down.

Since then, he, along with another former mod (I've never had a negative interaction with, and considered a friend???), have begun reaching out to people from past dramas, to try to compile a Google doc about me. These are individuals who have already proven themselves to be bad actors in my life.

I want to be very clear: I didn't attack anyone, I didn't talk behind anyone's back, and I didn't escalate anything. This all stems from a disagreement about what warrants a warning in my discord server.

I've moved on from these past dramas and people. I haven't spoken about them or engaged in anything related for months. I don't understand why I'm being targeted the way I am. Somehow I'm being framed as a problem for simply setting boundaries in my own discord community.

I genuinely don't understand how choosing to step down from a volunteer role turns into coordinating a hate campaign with people who've previously tried to hurt me, all over a disagreement about discord rules.

This behavior is deeply unsettling. I've been staying in my lane and focusing on my own life. I wish others could do the same.

You can paint me as the "mean girl" all you want. I don't fold and I don't bend. I've been through hell in this community already, and people can't stand that I stand my ground and defend myself. I'll keep doing exactly that, especially when there are bad actors who only want to tear down someone they see doing well.

January 30th to Jan 31st,

I have decided to scrub my account of the drama in attempts to move on, however not only it shows submitting defeat to all of the lies about me and twisting it to make me look like a petty egotistical VTuber, I made a statement about it in hopes to be left alone. However, because of ToughерParty77 serving as a servant and informant of Nines and Nova. ToughерParty77 informed them of my posts and what I was doing. This gave Nova the opportunity to make a heavily disparaging and slanderous post about me when all I wanted was the truth to get out and be in peace.

For those who are reading this document, I urge you to look at the patterns in their posts and see that they only focus on me stepping down as a moderator and twist it even more which in simpler terms, my step down "really isn't that deep." but to them it means more than that.

In an attempt to get word out there, I streamed my drama with Nines, which ended up being attacked by 3 of Nines's mods. Super, who goes by the name of Twat, an Australian user. Potato, an American user, and of no surprise, Nova. Who is also an American user. Before I finally made the move to move on I took down the vod on X but it is still up on Youtube for all to see as well as public clips of Grengol speaking on the matter.

Honestly, I'm just gonna scrub the whole thing.

I just absolutely do not care.

If Nines's community is going to be full of childish profligates then so be it, I'm just gonna let people believe what they wanna believe.

If people are coming from Nines's community and they're going to bring up stuff like this, they're just gonna get perma banned. My entire community and streams will be an absolute no entry zone.

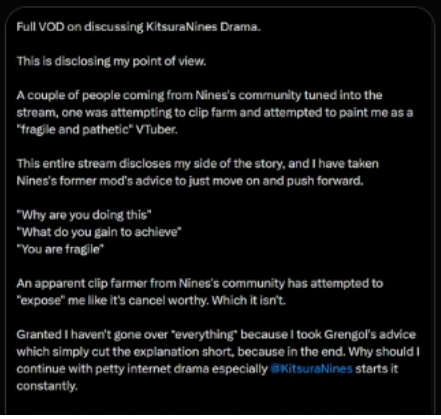
And considering she will bar anyone from joining her community (because I really do not care if they join her community and be friends with Nines), or participate in any way in her community, then I will just simply do the same. Her community is permanently banned from all of my spaces.

This isn't pettiness, this isn't "losing a drama" this is more of "why should I give a damn if these people exist or not."

My final message to anyone relating to Nines.

I sincerely do not care about your existence at all nor what you have to say and what happens to you.

That being said I will continue normal operations which is just playing games and hanging out with my community members.



Full VOD on discussing KitsuraNines Drama.
This is disclosing my point of view.
A couple of people coming from Nines's community tuned into the stream, one was attempting to clip farm and attempted to paint me as a "fragile and pathetic" VTuber.
This entire stream discloses my side of the story, and I have taken Nines's former mod's advice to just move on and push forward.
"Why are you doing this"
"What do you gain to achieve"
"You are fragile"
An apparent clip farmer from Nines's community has attempted to "expose" me like it's cancel worthy. Which it isn't.
Granted I haven't gone over "everything" because I took Grengol's advice which simply cut the explanation short, because in the end. Why should I continue with petty internet drama especially @KitsuraNines starts it constantly.

In a quick summary of what was explained, there was so much to cover and I have stuff to do so some haven't been brought up in the VOD:
- I stepped down as mod because Nines's server handled things differently in her server (it boils down to more details which is in the VOD.)
- Nines proceeded to talk negatively about our interaction in DM's calling the conversation a "nothing burger" and called me petty.
- Found out that Nines has been talking negatively about other people including other VTubers, her own mods and her own followers which explains multiple dramas about Nines.

I know I utilized Roman terms like "profligates" which is literally calling someone low of value which doesn't make things better, this was done out of frustration and I was getting fed up of hearing about Nines and her servant ToughерParty77 constantly leaking information. So I understand this post didn't land that well.

Once I have made the post, I knew exactly that the informant would post screenshots or links to Nines and Nova, after I made the post saying I know I would get stalked, and addressed legal concerns, pointing out targeted harassment, hazing and hateful acts, I proceeded to sarcastically say "I'm glad I'm a US Citizen" which didn't land well either.

Shortly after my concerned post was made, Nova immediately responded to my post which the screenshot of it is posted above. His response continued to dig in on painting me as a "petty, power tripping moderator and everything I said is hearsay" He proceeded to lie more and more, saying I took everything personally. He then lied about him telling me to be cautious which isn't true (the screenshot of what he said is on Page 2).

I know this post is going to get stalked now I have a dedicated group of haters now who funny enough said that I act like a redditor and basically all I've done is petty and all I have said and done is out of hate which is projection.
That being said all they're going to do is stalk my twitch and YouTube which it's only going to be used for gaming and this account will be dormant from now on with only little commentary.
At least I move on from something and not resort to outright cyberbullying, hazing, and other hateful acts which is a crime, glad I'm a US citizen.

He then proceeded to continue to claim it's a smear campaign all because I'm writing this document which the sole purpose is to get the truth out which he then continues to harp and repeat that "I can't control my own ego" when all I wanted was Nines and Nova to take accountability of facilitating a toxic environment and refusing to take action against users who are taking it too far. (for more information please see page 4).

@IwannabeNova
For context, this guy applied for mod in @KitsuraNines' Discord server and was granted the Big Dogs (moderator) role. What happened next was nothing short of power tripping and hearsay.
One incident in particular involved banter between himself and two other community members. At least it was supposed to be casual banter, but Aldrius took it personally and decided to time out one of the users involved in the light banter. He brought the situation to our attention in the mod chat and after Nines and other moderators (including myself) thought it was odd what he did, I decided to take accountability for our team (I am one of two head moderators, but I in particular am a proxy for Nines in case she is absent or on hiatus) and message him directly. I told him as it was. What happened in the channel was just light banter. If you cannot handle small banter such as that, then you cannot handle being a moderator. I gave him a strike (you are allowed two strikes before losing mod privileges) and advised him to be more cautious of his approach in the future.
After that happened, he DMed Nines directly saying he wants to step down and resign his moderator role. Now, I'm not entirely sure what happened in the very VERY minor downtime between him stepping down and now, but he decided it was a good idea to "get back" at Nines by making a Google document and getting other vtubers Nines has had drama with in the past to add to the document. Looks like that didn't go as planned for this guy since he decides to erase everything and backpedal as if he didn't just try to spread lies and hearsay about Nines in an attempt to smear her, all because he couldn't control his own ego.
I don't understand what drives this person to attempt an entire ass smear campaign on Nines when I think the harshest person was me when I dmed him about his conduct as a moderator. This is sadly another "I say something and Nines is affected" situation.
Aldrius @aladraion · 17h

In this screenshot this is a direct response from my post raising cyber harassment concerns and my announcement in my discord server, which the informant told her about and forwarded and screenshotted my DMs with the informant (before I knew ToughterParty77 is the informant).

All of this effort to take down a Roman Emperor VTuber who has 313 followers on X and 207 Followers on Twitch and 266 subscribers on youtube, versus a Fox Vtuber who has 16k followers on X, and 2.7k followers on Twitch. Which paints the big picture of how low Nines will go to harass any VTuber of any size, and any future business partner(s) if things don't settle with her. This level of behavior can go anywhere from a simple collab to partnerships and even, what she herself said was, friendships. I know for sure that I am not the only one who dealt with this level of behavior from Nines.

This situation would've never happened if Nines hadn't said any disparaging comments about our conversation we had in DMs to her moderators which has been confirmed plenty of times by Grengol and I even had him on my stream talking about the situation which links to the clips will be linked to this document. However I am partially at fault for even publicly mentioning a google doc before the doc was ever created. I really hope this document reaches as many people as possible as this cannot be ignored that Nines will constantly cause problems such as ripping and tearing apart friendships, partnerships, and even relationships between Content Creator to Content Creator. I have apologized and taken a step back which as a result Nines and Nova are not satisfied, and they will continue to keep pushing this agenda until I am in some way either cancelled or harmed in any way.

1 Feb - 2 Feb

After vague posting multiple times about me, and I have been speaking with my community to keep an eye out for alt accounts, (which she managed to have 2 in her server, and if not then my server is compromised). She admitted in her private VC in her server (possibly the mod VC, if my hunch is correct as an anonymous user in my contacts who is in her server) told me that there is a possibility that she will dox me and my server. On top of that, multiple exchanges were made with her community members in my comments.

I made two announcements about it. Including encouraging my members to stand up for themselves as they are getting cyber bullied and harassed into completely staying away from saying anything about the drama I was undergoing at the time, and to push back Nines and her community despite how small of a channel I am.

@everyone From what I am gathering, Nines is having members and possible herself find anyone associated with my community and harass them into not getting involved.

Do. Not. Back. Down.

I emphasize on holding your ground and defending yourself.

All the things she is doing will end up having her american audience associated with her and get them arrested.

All of you will witness how much of a fighter I am.

You are not a Legionnaire if you allow people to push you around and bully you, STAND YOUR GROUND

Nines (At the time of the screenshots) immediately got the screenshots shortly after the announcements and announced them on X. Further twisting the narrative that I am the bad guy and still continuing to dig in with the "bruised ego" and throwing more insults. As well as deflecting the raised concerns of illegal activity such as cyber bullying and harassment which is indeed illegal in the United States, as it can lead to Doxxing and other illegal activities if left unchecked. She continues to say I am upset, my "ego" is bruised, and I "need to grow up". Her posts have an average of 4 to 6 paragraphs. Compared to a couple of my posts which are a lot less than 2 or 3 paragraphs.

this is a screenshot i've been shared anonymously from discord of the person who is trying to create a hate campaign against me.

this person is genuinely unhinged at this point.

he's made multiple posts about me while claiming he wants to "end the drama" but he is the one inciting it. meanwhile he's hosting streams, writing docs, and trying to drag other people into it. the situations with saturn and neevin were already very public and are long finished.

what actually happened here is simple: he couldn't handle internet banter, tried to present it to me as a moderation issue, and i said i didn't see a problem.

(people trying to use power to shut down banter they don't like) that's it.

he seems mostly upset that i didn't take his complaint seriously. i brought it ip with my entire mod team and we all agreed this was a non issue in the server.

now he's spiralling and making wildly inaccurate claims.

no one is attacking him. none of this was even public until he made it. no one is being barred from my community. i wish he would just leave me alone. i wouldn't have to post anything about it if he just stepped down and went on his way like a normal human being.

you don't have to like what i say, but trying to smear me and rope other people (who already hate me) in over something this small is genuinely wild behavior.

grow up. i'm literally in my lane living my life.

i'm not responsible for your bruised ego. i didn't wrong you. you stepped down on your own. we had different ideas of moderation. turning that into a crusade against me is on you.

also wild to claim people are going to be also wild to claim people are going to be arrested for harassment- when you are the one inciting it on me.

i’m posting this as a heads up to everyone in my community.

people always say i’m “in drama,” and yea, sometimes i have been. but a lot of it comes from people like this who are incredibly fragile and incapable of letting things go.

this is someone who is now trying to attack me and drag my name simply because i didn’t agree that basic internet banter warranted warnings or discipline in my discord.

See this as the Empire calling for aid

See this as Gondor calling for aid

So I will ask you all this

Where are my legionnaires?

Where is Rohan?

@everyone From what I am gathering, Nines is having members and possible herself find anyone associated with my community and harass them into not getting involved.

Do. Not. Back. Down.

I emphasize on holding your ground and defending yourself.

All the things she is doing will end up having her american audience associated with her and get them arrested.

All of you will witness how much of a fighter I am.

You are not a Legionnaire if you allow people to push you around and bully you, STAND YOUR GROUND

After my announcements, my community members joined me in VC, they wanted to hear from me what's going on, I shared them a copy of this Google doc and they looked at her side of the story and they all said in (in their words) "It's bullshit." They saw how much she is lying in her posts. This is not them supporting me for no reason just because I'm their favorite VTuber or favorite man to talk to. They are a neutral server. They told me that I bave my moments but I actually go out of my own way to make things better after I apologized to them if I said or did anything to them which is very rare.

One of my newest community members who left Nines's server due to her immaturity, he ended up ratioing Nines on her post about my server. At the time of me being in VC with them, (9:42), before hours later the ratio is broken.

Your community knows who obviously so you don't need to say a name publicly , so therefore you are attacking someone even without a name so grow up put your big girl panties on and leave people alone

After seeing this, I appreciated my community getting involved since this drama unfortunately brought my community into it right after the doxxing awareness.

Nines in the comments continued to deflect.

What she's not telling you is that before that post me and many others in the server weren't allowed to address the drama, and let it blow over until the mod, and nines kept bringing up the drama when he decided to make the doc

@everyone Also, important Public Service Announcement. The server is going to be in full lock down, the server will be in the hands of the @Praetorian Guard (moderator) and @Praefectus(Governor) (Admin), nobody is allowed to talk about the Nines Drama until the end of the month. I have zero say in anything, the moderators and the admin has full control over the entire server. The mods are free to ban you without question and needing of investigation and they will not hesitate on doing so. This also affects DMs, VCs, and outside the server in places such as Twitter, Twitch, Youtube, and in other discords, etc. (edited)
Basically, look at this as Martial Law

remainder of february

@everyone hey all, I would like to bring your attention to this matter, your VTuber, Aldrus which is myself is currently being stalked by Nova, who is Nines's top moderator.
This is 100% targeted cyberbullying which is literally considered illegal.
I would like everyone to please report this post to authorities, including X.
This is literally illegal and clearly on my post I made it clear that I have moved on.

For context this guy applied for mod in @KitsuraNines' Discord server and was granted the Big Dogs (moderator) role. What happened next was nothing short of power tripping and hearsay.
One incident in particular involved banter between himself and two other community members.

That user lives in the United States.
Cyberbullying someone especially a government asset is literally a federal crime.

The post in question is about the announcement I made in my discord server. Nines attempted to gaslight the user questioning her and it ultimately failed. She ended up blocking 4 (or more) users who disagreed with her.

After she received a bit of pushback from my community, she decided to run away from accountability (again), and immediately attempted and successfully change subject, repeating the same twisted narrative before changing topics to pizza. (Btw massive dominos fan here) i don't feel the need to say much more. anyone paying attention can see how this person operates and how they turned a complete nothing burger into a full blown escalation for no reason. apparently explaining what happened is "talking shit" and "harassment," but them calling me belligerent names and trying to threaten me is somehow fine???? (they've got stellar logic 👌) i'm not going to argue with people who live in bad faith and align themselves with known bad actors in my life to boot. there's no point LOL. thank you to everyone who actually sees what's going on, i just have one question for you all. PAPA JOHNS OR DOMINOS?

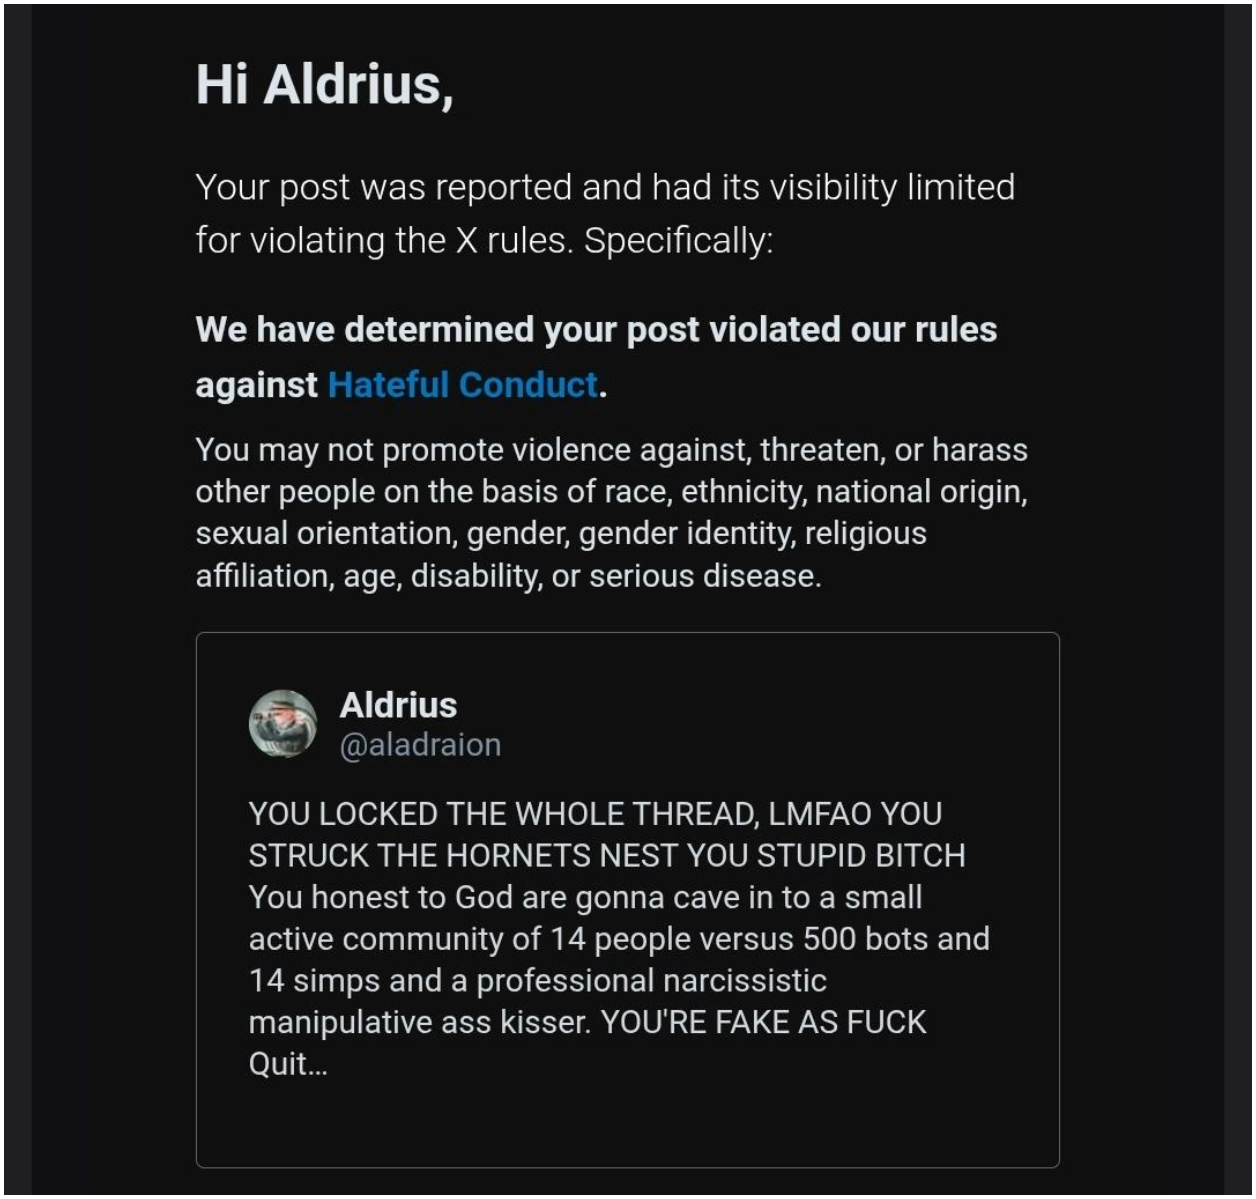
I will admit, I have said something on X that warranted a report and take down for "harassment and hate speech" which isn't in the post but I took it down anyway. And the post called Nines "petty" and also called her "a stupid bitch", that part was me being impulsive and a bit cocky at that moment.



Hi Aldrius,
Your post was reported and had its visibility limited for violating the X rules. Specifically:
We have determined your post violated our rules against Hateful Conduct.
You may not promote violence against, threaten, or harass other people on the basis of race, ethnicity, national origin, sexual orientation, gender, gender identity, religious affiliation, age, disability, or serious disease.

YOU LOCKED THE WHOLE THREAD, LMFAO YOU STRUCK THE HORNETS NEST YOU STUPID BITCH You honest to God are gonna cave in to a small active community of 14 people versus 500 bots and 14 simps and a professional narcissistic manipulative ass kisser. YOU'RE FAKE AS FUCK Quit...

This entire drama went from January 27th to February 2nd, everyone in the Roman VTuber Community including myself are relieved that this died down a bit while still having awareness of Nines's capabilities and how she dodges accountability, transparency. While also being called out by not just by my community members and myself, but also from other people and VTubers, of her and Nova being narcissists and manipulators.
